

Litzky Public Relations, Inc.

Internship

Work with top PR professionals to gain experience in the public relations field!

Litzky Public Relations, a boutique agency on the Hoboken waterfront, is looking for a spring intern and we are currently accepting resumes.

The LPR internship program strives to provide undergraduate and graduate students with meaningful and practical work experience.

LPR interns will participate in a variety of projects and engage with fellow team members. Responsibilities include but are not limited to research, drafting copy, participating in brainstorming meetings, assisting with social media, maintaining media lists, supporting planning and execution of events, maintaining clip reports and minor administrative tasks.

Interns are paid hourly and may arrange for credit through school.

Interested in joining our family? Please email your resume to jobs@litzkypr.com with the subject line "Spring 2017 Internship."

About Our Company:

Litzky Public Relations (LPR) was founded in 1988 by Michele Litzky. Today, 25 public relations professionals comprise the LPR team. What they have in common is a scrupulous work ethic and a 'nose for news.' We're strategic thinkers with big ideas and the talent to bring them to fruition. A full-service agency, our clients range from international blue chip companies to small start-ups with a great story or unusual product. Regardless of their size, all of our clients get the 'star' treatment. And, we deliver what we promise. For more information on LPR please visit www.litzkypr.com.
